GRACELAND NINJAZ

Bio

David "EzE" McMahon, a three-time Emmy® Award-Winning singer-songwriter, has been performing nationally for over 10 years. His charismatic stage presence, dynamic vocals, and gyrating hips bring an explosive energy to the Ninjaz.

Adrian "Kid A" Jarvis delivers the softer side of Graceland Ninjaz with her angelic harmonies and frisky moves. Her vocals lend depth and power to the band's dynamic sound, with a finesse that is truly outrageous. She is also winner of the Dallas Voice of Pride vocal competition.

Krissy "K Luv" Winston, hailing from New Orleans, brings an unmistakable style and soul to Graceland Ninjaz. When she belts out "Proud Mary" or "Think" with the band, it is as if people haven't heard singing before. Krissy's tremendous vocal stylings deliver a flavor just as delicious as Nola itself.

Shannon "Rev Lightning" Sharp, an electrifying lead guitarist and vocalist, commands the stage with dynamic solos and unforgettable melodies. Shannon brings some of his native Seattle vibe to the Ninjaz, adding an engaging and energetic presence to the stage.

Jonathan "J Fish" Fisher, a Dallas-Ft. Worth jazz legend, leads the rhythm section of Graceland Ninjaz with rock-solid, in-the-pocket grooves that keep the beat fresh. A virtuoso of both electric and upright double bass, J Fish also leads jazz quartets, available to perform with The Ninjaz at special events.

Bobby "Bobby-Q" Hoke, a veteran keyboardist on the local scene, has worked with Roland Corp. and Yamaha on synthesis programming, and written articles for Musician Magazine. He holds down the synthesized Ninja groove with the mastery of a drunken wizard.
